

February 22, 2011 W. O. W. Kings...Worship is your Weapon of War

Some kings in this age hold the title “Worship Leader.” Almost half of you I serve as an intercessor are active in the music industry, and much of this today was birthed from a prayer time over just one of you. Most of the things here will have personal implication for more than one, as several of your notes to me have confirmed. Today I know I was spoken to personally with what is here!

Glean what is for you, and pray over that which is for others as well. Worship is Warfare! However, not all who lead in worship are musical. The government of God is established on praise, and praise arises in various ways and means and settings from His people.

Gideon was a worship leader in his own right and was able to pick comrades who knew how to take a stance of worship as they went to war, even though it did not make sense in the natural, and he had to wrestle within himself to be obedient in the positions he was placed in.

Moses was a worship leader and not just when he was on the mountain top or leading the nation of Israel, he led even the heathen to worship God due to the exploits accomplished through his obedience, yet most of what is recorded of his life he was found wrestling with those around him, for their own good and for the welfare of many.

David was a musical worship leader before being anointed as king...and grew in that role because of being king...and also led many others into worship as well as to lead others in worship, even though he both wrestled within and against himself, he went to many wars with others...and even as recorded with God over the life of his son!

The anointings of Gideon, Moses and David are being released afresh and prevailing in you who are leaders, you who were born to be kings in this age.

The giving of time, skill, finance, affection and life are all means of worship.

Whether your voice is noted to be on key or off key, as you glorify God in every aspect of your life, as you acknowledge that He is God and that He is good, very good to you, that eternal Key of David unlocks and opens venues for angelic activity that will impact the globe!

WORSHIP AS YOU WRESTLE WITHIN YOURSELF

Judges 6 and 7 the story of Gideon...READ FROM YOUR OWN BIBLE

As you take time personally to read and pray through Gideon's life, especially how those he was to fight with were chosen, and what they did as a unit united together, God will give you personal marching orders...and March is right around the corner.

All those who knelt were disqualified! Those who lapped with their hand to their mouth were chosen...the tongue hold life and death...Jesus is not as religious as most in the church...there is nothing wrong with kneeling to pray, but He is looking for those with their heads held high, their eyes to the horizon and who keep their hand to their mouth to get the needed living waters. After that because their thirst was satisfied, their hands were filled as they went out. They could not grasp for anything else they saw belonging to their enemies. They had empty pitchers in one hand holding a torch...and in the other hand a trumpet to sound as a shout of victory.

The torches were in the left hand containing a live flame of fire within. The flame of your life comes from your heart connect with Christ, of being alive in that place of intimacy. We love because He first loved us. He desires you to have and to keep first things first for the rest of your days.

The trumpet was in the right hand representing strength and anointing so that what comes out of you will resound and lead to life and victory...victory for others because of the victory in your life first.

Vision for those who are called like Gideon I saw a very tall man, like exaggeratedly tall as if he were a clown in a circus who was wearing stilts, but this man was truly this tall by design, nothing false added. He was also very thin...like a pencil or stick or beanpole. He seemed to just want to be invisible, to hide so no one would see him. He was not at all insecure or downtrodden, and it was not false humility, he simply loved God and wanted everyone to see Him and not look to the man at all. Actually as I first looked his appearance was almost whitewashed. I could tell he had on a patchwork jacket, and originally it was very deep with color, but it was definitely dulled due to the passing of time, weathering various difficult seasons and just being exposed to the elements. His shoulders were definitely hunched over...

Word to Ponder in Prayer

Stand up. Take your stand, and stand tall. Yes I have seen your heart, your desire, your passion for My glory. Heaven is aware of when you have let others take credit for things accomplished through you. I understand. Your awkwardness over the years as you grew in wisdom and stature and favor with Me and man, was due to the envy and jealousy from others that assaulted your every attempt. Yet I keep accurate records, and very few are as confident to be alone with Me as you are. You have felt much sorrow and wept with Me when others came just weeping for themselves...and I do not mind that, but My son, you love much because you have been forgiven much and even desired to share with Me in My sufferings. Seasons change, and I am now inviting you to share with Me in My joy. Human joy is part of your inheritance in this age, and I want to give you everything simply because you have withheld nothing. You are washed and you are holy. You live on your face before Me. Today I want you to lift up your eyes and see what I have prepared for you, not just for the world through you. Take all I have placed inside you...you who have chosen the narrow way, you who live on your knees before Me so that you can stand and stand tall before man and not fall. You have blessed others...now receive the blessing of the Lord! You no longer have to look for that rainbow. You are My rainbow, My prism of promise, released today as I stand in your behalf!

WORSHIP AS YOU WRESTLE OVER THE LIVES OF OTHERS

Isaiah 30:29-32 you will have songs as in the night when you keep the festival, and gladness of heart as when one marches to the sound of the flute, to go to the mountain of the LORD, to the Rock of Israel. And the LORD will cause His voice of authority to be heard, And the descending of His arm to be seen in fierce anger, and in the flame of a consuming fire in cloudburst, downpour and hailstones. For at the voice of the LORD Assyria will be terrified, when He strikes with the rod. And every blow of the rod of punishment, which the LORD will lay on him, will be with the music of tambourines and lyres; and in battles, brandishing weapons, He will fight them.

Vision for those who are called like Moses

I saw this river that was dark and winding and going deep into a jungle. I know some who live along the Amazon and although I have never been there yet, there is an astonishing beauty and distinction and of dignity of life made evident where the construction teams of man have not yet invaded.

It was just before the dawn...and we all know it is darkest in those twilight hours. This sense was almost as if the moon and sun were at battle for the dominion over this man...but in this age, both are required for growth of all mankind.

I realized there was this little boat on the river...it was definitely handmade and actually not very water-tight...and its owner was dogpaddling beside it, hanging on as if to keep it afloat!

As the dawn first ray broken through the heavens, his hand was struck as if with lightning and he let go, stood up and realized the water only came up to his knees...he let out a deep belly laugh, and picked up the boat with his left hand, reached over with his right hand to grasp it overhead with both hands...and it became a golden rod, shaped like a shepherds staff!

Word to Ponder in Prayer

Oh My beloved son, you too need to take your stand...stand up even now.

This day, this very day, this is the day you have been preparing for, and even without knowledge of all the details, longed and waited for all your life.

Each season has had meaning and been training ground, for the one you are about to enter.

The river of Life has been your escort...living waters have carried and kept you even when you thought you might sink, and even when they appeared to run dry.

You break the back of the enemy with your song, your praise and thanksgiving even through the tears resounding through the heavens.

Moses thought he needed others to speak for him, and so have you at times. Moses also spoke rashly and not from My heart that caused him to miss out on the desire of his heart.

I assure you that is not your lot in this age. The promise you have set your sight on is real, is yours and it is time to go and claim that which I have allotted to you.

You are going to take many with you. Many will see and fear and put their trust in Me because you have.

The land of promise has boundaries beyond what you have yet seen...get ready, get ready for more than you have asked or imagined!

WORSHIP AS YOU WRESTLE WITH ME

1 Chronicles 16:23-31 Sing to the LORD, all the earth; Proclaim good tidings of His salvation from day to day. Tell of His glory among the nations, His wonderful deeds among all the peoples. For great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised; He also is to be feared above all gods. For all the gods of the peoples are idols, but the LORD made the heavens! Splendor and majesty are before Him, Strength and joy are in His place. Ascribe to the LORD, O families of the peoples, ascribe to the LORD, glory and strength. Ascribe to the LORD the glory due His name; bring an offering, and come before Him; Worship the LORD in holy array. Tremble before Him, all the earth; Indeed, the world is firmly established, it will not be moved. Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice; and let them say among the nations, "The LORD reigns."

Vision for those who are called like David

You were the Master of Ceremonies for this parade...I did not know the name of it, and could see neither the beginning nor the end. There were definitely 4 different segments to this parade...representing the four seasons of the year, and the part I was watching was the transition from summer to fall. You had a very BIG megaphone to broadcast each float and the 'company' they were representing, and this last one from the summer section had actually not conformed to the guidelines and you were apologizing to everyone for the embarrassment of the committee and the mistake of allowing them to participate. Suddenly all that was overshadowed as the first one from fall appeared on the scene. It was a breath-taking depiction of Christ in the Garden of Gethsemane with a huge cross at the very back of the float casting its shadow over Jesus kneeling, and it appeared He had a crown on the way the shadows from the cross fell over Him. See the cross was actually a live apple tree. Its roots were safe and secure in a golden bucket and its limbs full of fruit still needing to be harvested moved with grace and caused its shade to cascade its beauty over everything in its path as its gentle rhythm seemed to grant life to each one it touched. This float moved along at a regal and steady pace. You were silent just watching the beauty of it all as all the effects of that anger and confusion of what had upset you just a little while before was removed. Finally you held the megaphone up and you began to sing, “Oh come let us adore Him” as all who were lined up and watching the broadcast joined in!

Word to Ponder in Prayer

You see clearly. You are a lover of truth. You abhor falsehood and pretense and deceit in every form. You have weathered many seasons and their various effects. You have been able to find Christ in every setting. You love order and appreciate those who can create and maintain it, because you seem so aware of havoc and disruption when it is about to happen. When it comes, with all that has been entrusted to you, at times you even cause some yourself. You long to see everything wrong is made right and have stepped over some well polished toes in making your attempts. The reality of all you see is your zeal and your abandonment to see it come to pass is backed by heaven. It is not an embarrassment to God and even when expressed without knowledge or clear perspective. You have not hindered anything God has asked or assigned to you. You have dared to challenge My wisdom in some unexpected events, but I assure you the time will come when all the wrong things will be made right. You have chosen the good part in trusting Me even when others around you tried to pull you away. Keep your sight set on Me. You have found newness of life in the shade I have provided from the scorching elements of past seasons. That which occurred really did happen, and some of it cannot be undone, but I assure you, everything, everything is working for your good and for My glory. I am glorified in you, and as you worship and praise me for that which appears impossible to you, I assure you that very thing will occur. Nothing is impossible with me. The suddenly of God is upon you and with one glance, everything has been put in proper perspective. All that is required of you in the year ahead is to worship...as you do, from that place, you will come to life like never before, and everyone your life touches will join in the celebration and rejoice with you. This fall has been marked on the calendar of heaven, for you.
