Subject: WOW: Letters to Kings, WAVES AND BREAKERS!

Greetings!

God is holy, righteous and true, all that He does He does in love.

As His sons, placed as kings in this age, you must embrace that same love.

As your soul is restored in His Presents, all the gifts within you are being unwrapped and opened. This will grant much joy for your own hearts, then added blessings will abound to those around you, those entrusted to you, those who are closest to you and even many you are unaware of.

In the beginning God spoke light into existence as He was moving over the surface of the waters.

\***Please take note on what God is saying in various venues and arenas about WATER and LIGHT. These are two of His 'natural' sources of power created like you were, for His glory in these last days!*

Many are called, but few are chosen, and heaven has recorded that you are both!

You have come too far to turn around.

Right now (both as I am praying 2-8-11 and again as you are reading) perhaps 12 hours from now there is a special meeting, or maybe 12 days from now a special convergence will occur...but with certainty all of you have something definite about to happen before the next 12 weeks are up, and this time next year...everything will be different for us all!

Here is the vision, the word, and the prayer notes that have come for you.

For a long time on February 8, 2011 I was praying in the spirit about you being called and chosen...then it seemed water and light came into the intercession ebb and flow there was a knowing that there are actually four elements to some degree all of you will have as a SPRING-BOARD for the upcoming seasons.

THERE IS A MANDATE IN MARCH FEW WILL CHOOSE TO GRASP HOLD OF...BUT IT IS PART OF THE FOUNDATION BEING SET FOR THE WELL-BEING OF MANY.

The vision and the word seems not to go together, but you I serve in intercession are involved in various arenas and spheres of influence so Jesus will make clear what is each of yours from Him and show you what to do with what He is entrusting to your care and stewardship.

VISION NOTE: THIS IS WHO YOU ARE

As I am praying, I begin to feel a moist coldness, like being in a fog.

I was not chilled though, rather revitalized and awakened. I began to look around and slowly I could see these two golden glowing circles...more like ovals...about seven feet in the air...I began to walk in wonder, and literally 'bumped' into a Royal Bobby!

His 'hat' was deep black, very plush, furry and tall...making him a total of ten feet.

He was walking on top of, and through, all kinds of 'rubbish' that had gathered. He was shod in very shinny, almost wet looking, appearing oily and deep black high-top boots. They were not at all dirtied or dulled by the careful steps he was taking, for nothing was sticking to them!

Suddenly I was reminded of Daniel 4:17 "This sentence is by the decree of the angelic watchers and the decision is a command of the holy ones, in order that the living may know that the Most High is ruler over the realm of mankind, and bestows it on whom He wishes and sets over it the lowliest of men."

He was holding a manual instead of a gun that contained Royal Decree's still being composed. Perhaps some will be your very life proclamations as you read carefully. I am noticing that the brass buttons were all unique and literal push buttons like on a control panel; they were unlike one other...but those details are for you to search out yourself.

This Majestic Guard had those glowing circle-ovals where the shoulder pads should have been.

These two pads signify what is important going forward, and granted so that history will not have to repeat itself for any.

Even the victories of the past will pale in comparison to the one that is waiting.

Both pads had the same shinning soft fur like that of the hat, and each had 12 different sections easily noted, very distinct and distinguished.

The right shoulder was a strategic launching pad, and the left a safety landing pad.

Light was coming from deep inside the pads and was the very foundation of what was available. It is evident that they were resting on top of water. Therefore the individual pads looked like lily pads...well kind of-sort of...Holy Spirit will make that clear.

There is a launching that must begin, and there are 'Holy Lots' that will become like a refuge and a place to rest, and be refurbished, well oiled and refueled.

WORD: Waves and Breakers, Waves and Breakers, Waves and Breakers....

Waves and breakers are coming as water and light are harvested and harnessed by you who are called and choose to participate.

I am granting living revelation and insight and creative understanding now so that in the days to come, you will not be caught unaware, and many lives will be spared.

Fuel and energy reservoirs both are at your disposal, to be dispersed!

Open your eyes and look to the horizon, for I always confirm My word with signs and wonders. Waves and breakers of destiny are about to impact the globe none are expecting. In the midst of natural disaster, there will be a birthing of freedom from delusion and doubt as all recognize I do intervene in the affairs of man, through men who are Mine!

You who are called and chosen will arise and show forth My Glory. Then your truth and faith together will cause many to see and fear and put their trust in Me as well.

Pride and vain-glory have covered the earth long enough, and blinded who I am even in the hearts of those who love Me. Some you stand shoulder to shoulder with are those who have been walking as they pleased, who have become sedated and satisfied with gaining what they wanted, and are about to be personally shaken.

Things are not always the way they appear.

Those so pleased in their own way, who appear to be enjoying what they desire, have not necessarily chosen My way nor do they have My favor upon their lives.

Some have gotten their own way, simply because that is all they have chosen.

I will not share My glory with another, yet today I invite you to participate in spreading it across the globe.

In past times and seasons you have been strategically hidden in the shadows of others who did not honor you.

Sometimes you were caught hiding in shadows of canceled sin, lost in looming shadows of past failures.

Some have even been paralyzed, and unable to walk at all due to circumstance determined to take your life.

All of you, in every season, were fearlessly hanging on to the faint whispers of promises daring to resound, without evidence of their fulfillment.

Then that moment of truth came, as through falling tears you recognized Me in it all and found you had been kept alive under the shadow of My wings the whole time!

You are Mine...you always have been...and because you were even in that day, all your days yet to be are marked holy!

Although brokenness and suffering and great personal demise came to overwhelm you, it is My Love that has washed that residue from your heart.

Disappointment became your companion for a season because even those around you could not help or even be heard above the clamor so loud within.

Doubt that darkened your heart, and clouded your mind, was used to bring you into My ways, and even with death looming around you, that actually helped keep you alive as you were groping for Me in ways that appeared you were not looking for Me at all.

I keep accurate records of your goings and comings...and both delusion and doubt were used to hem you in and bring you to this day. Both are your enemy, and so Mine as well.

No plan of Mine can be thwarted and even through seeming failures and loss, all things are working together for your good, and My Glory.

I am a God of deliverance so take note, the waves and breakers coming are from Me!

Those around you hewing out their own path of glory, are about to be caught into Mine.

I am not willing for any to perish, especially those whom I have called and chosen, and you are My instruments to bring many other sons to Glory.

As these waves pulse their way to where you are, and crash over your lives, fear not. You will find yourself on the shore where you belong, a place of rest and launching.

Because faith and truth are now your new companions, true comrades will stand by your side, some of which you will literally raise from the dead!

Those who have been pushed way back into the shadows, held far away from Me, those used and betrayed, those who could find no path to walk on at all, are about to be caught up in My glory.

I am calling hidden treasures out of the darkness, and ask you to be My helping hands in pulling them out.

You have been called and chosen to show forth My glory, not to hide it, but for it to be put on display and seen clearly by what I will do through you.

As waves and breakers pulse their way to where you are, and crash upon and over your lives, you will fear only Me.

You will find yourself standing on the shore where you belong.

There are distinct portals of healing to be established and found in the pathways of restoration I am marking out.

There are new and different shorelines than the one you keep looking at.

You must look to Me for that which is to be established enduring the test of time.

These waves come rushing towards you from the vast expanse of their origin....My heart. They meet the waves coming back from the shore of your life, as it is being changed in scope and destiny, and even now a breaker occurs.

Yes, I declare Waves and Breakers are headed your way.

You may run, but they are faster.

You may hide, but they know no bounds.

You may brace yourself, but they will carry you, as I please, for My glory.

You who would be Mine in this hour: Will you walk along the shores of Truth and Faith.... Will you listen to hear Me calling your name.... Will you take My glory to the ends of the earth...

Of course you will, or I would not have asked!

\***It is the glory of God to conceal a matter...and your glory as a much loved son...as His Little Prince, reigning king to search them out. Perhaps for some of you none of the above was for you, but look to see what will resound in these*
